Customer Reviews

Don't pay for this when this information, for this series and many other series, is available for free through Goodreads, the author's Web site or even a basic Internet search.

Now I've heard everything. You want us to pay to know what order the series goes in. If I can't get that free on the authors website I guess I can find a new author to read.

Is this a joke?

Here's a tip for everyone that does not want to pay for the Kindle edition of this book of lists. Just download the free sample, it still gives you all the books organized in series and chronological order. I saw quite a few books that I did not know about. Apparently the sample doesn't include the interactive checklist where you can click to go to the indicated books and track what you have already read. If you want that extra convenience, then pay the 99 cents for the full interactive version.

Didn't buy it and why would I? That's what the authors website is for.

Its just a list. Nothing more. Don't pay for it.

This is unbelievable. I want to buy books from and they want to charge me to know what order they should be in. must think they are the airlines because this shows they hate their custoemrs.

Love the Jack Reacher books, and this guide will help me keep the books in the correct reading order. Just finished up the "Prey" book series by John Sanford - wish I would have had a guide like this to keep me following the books in the correct order. Makes all the difference sometimes!
